
SERMON OUTLINE

Life Is Short, but God is Gracious

Psalm 90

- I. Life is short, so we must rest in the eternal God (Psalm 90:1-12).
 - A. Our only real security is the eternal God who controls our brief life (1-6).
 - B. Our short life ends in death because of our sin and God's justice (7-11).
 - C. Since life is short, we need God to teach us to live wisely (12).

- II. God is gracious, so we can make every day matter (Psalm 90:13-17).
 - A. Since God is compassionate, our brief days can be satisfying and joyful (13-15).
 - B. Since God is good, He can make all our days and all our work significant (16-17).
